

People Water and Land – Te Mana o te Tangata, te Wai, te Whenua

Workshop 4 - Agenda

Thursday 25 July and Friday 26 July, Kelvin Hotel, Invercargill

Workshop outcomes: Review and bring together the learning from the first phase of the Forum
 Build knowledge of key changes affecting freshwater in the region
 Develop understanding of human health and management of human impact on freshwater Build understanding of estuaries, with a focus on New River Estuary
 Focus on the Oreti Catchment

Day 1: Thursday 25 July

10am Welcome and karakia. Review of content from previous workshop
 10.15am Overview of key issues for freshwater in the region and the Oreti catchment.
 10.45am Discussion: Where does the environment end and the economy start?
 11:30am Three waters and public health
 12.15pm Introduction of Kaititui Technical Team and tools for effecting change
 1.15pm Lunch
 2pm Workshopping with tools for effecting change
 4pm Break
 5.30pm Public Session: Perspectives on the Future
Refreshments included
 7.30pm Shared meal with Councillors and TAMI Board members

Day 2: Friday 26 July

8.00am Working breakfast: Physiographics
 Matauranga Maori perspectives on Oreti catchment and estuary health
 9.15am Managing water for Invercargill City
 10am Fieldtrip: Wastewater Treatment Plant and New River Estuary
 1.30pm Lunch
 2.10pm Values and objectives briefing
 2.30pm Discussion: Review of Phase One
 3.30pm Debrief and key messages
 4pm Close